

Draft Agenda

Thursday, 21st of February
9.00-11.00	Session 1. Priorities of the Task Force Agenda <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Opening remarks by Co-Chairs of the Task Force: Aleksey Vovchenko, Deputy Minister of Labour and Social Protection (Russia), Margaret Kidd, Group Manager, Jobs Strategies Group, Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations (Australia) ▪ Welcome Address by Ksenia Yudaeva, Russian G20 Sherpa and Chief of Presidential Experts' Directorate, Executive Office of the President ▪ Overview of the Task Force's objectives and structure of work by Aleksey Vovchenko ▪ Remarks by Andrey Bokarev, Director, Department of International Financial Relations, Ministry of Finance, on coordination with Finance Track and other G20 working groups ▪ Discussion on the Task Forces's draft Terms of Reference
11.00 –11.30	Coffee break
11.30 – 13.00	Session 2. Cooperation with social partners <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Remarks by Elena Zotova, Head Employment Division, Russia's G20 Expert Council, Task Force's co-facilitator, on the structure of work with social partners ▪ Presentation by Business 20 ▪ Presentation by Labour 20 ▪ Presentation by Civil 20 ▪ Discussion among participants
13.00 – 13.20	Family photo
13.30 – 15.00	Lunch
14.30 – 16.00	Session 3. Job Creation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Presentation by Aleksey Vovchenko ▪ Presentation by the World Bank ▪ Confirmed speakers: Argentina, Australia, China, EU, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, US ▪ Discussion among participants. What new job creation approaches could be proposed to promote growth and development? What are the key priorities for investments for job creation in G20

	countries with high unemployment and in G20 countries with low unemployment? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - How job creation could address structural unemployment and facilitate structural mobility in employment? - How to ensure that skills and qualifications match the new jobs requirements? - What should be done by the G20 countries for improving quality of employment in the developing countries? - What is needed to facilitate re-allocation of workers to the most productive and rewarding jobs? - How to ensure cooperation of public and private sectors in job creation?
16.00 – 16.30	Coffee break
16.30 – 18.00	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Continuation of discussion among participants <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - How development and fiscal policies will affect global labor markets? - How to ensure coordination of various policies and their positive impact on labor markets? - What monetary and fiscal policies measures G20 countries undertake to support job creation? - How could G20 facilitate the stronger global policies for job creation? - How to enable policies and regulations to simultaneously address the financial, economic, and social needs of countries' population? - Potential deliverables for the Labour Ministers' Meeting and their joint meeting with Finance Ministers
19.00 – 21.00	Dinner on behalf of Alexey Vovchenko, Deputy Minister of Labour and Social Protection of the Russian Federation
Friday, 22nd of February
9.00 – 11.00	Session 4. Labor Activation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Presentation by Aleksey Vovchenko ▪ Presentation by the OECD ▪ Confirmed speakers: Brazil, Canada, EU, France, Germany, India, Turkey. ▪ Discussion among participants. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - How to define that certain vulnerable group become disconnected from the labor market and even when stronger growth resumes remain excluded or marginalized from decent work opportunities? - What should be done by G20 countries to minimize barriers faced by different population groups in accessing labor market, skills and capacity building, training and technology, capital and assets? - What are the priorities for the G20 countries in Labor activation policies? - How to improve skills development and provide second-chance

	learning opportunities? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - How to give vulnerable groups in G20 countries new chances for a decent living? - Is youth unemployment a special issue, which requires special consideration, or are the challenges faced by new entrants at labor market similar to those of the vulnerable groups (women with young children, disabled, low skilled etc.)? - What kind of coordination between G20 countries is needed to increase labor activation of vulnerable groups? - How could the G20 contribute to labor activation globally? - How to promote equality in accessing the resources to start and develop micro, small and medium enterprises as vital part of enhancing job opportunities? - Potential deliverables for the Labour Ministers' Meeting and their joint meeting with Finance Ministers
11.00 – 11.30	Coffee Break
11:30 – 13:30	Session 5. Monitoring of labor market development and progress made by countries in implementing the G20 employment agenda <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Presentation by Aleksey Vovchenko ▪ Presentation by the ILO ▪ Confirmed speakers: EU, Germany, India ▪ Discussion among participants. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - What are the major achievements by G20 countries in implementation of the decisions of previous G20 Leaders summits? - What labor market information /statistical data gaps exist nowadays and how to use it efficiently? - Harmonization of definitions of labor market indicators is being done – what's next is needed to improve the comparability of data? - How to use the data to measure the labor markets development? - Potential deliverables for the Labour Ministers' Meeting and their joint meeting with Finance Ministers
13:30 – 15.00	Lunch
15.00 – 16.30	Session 6. Agenda of the G20 Labor Ministers' Meeting and the Joint Meeting of G20 Labor Ministers with G20 Finance Ministers - Next Steps <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Agenda of the G20 Labor Ministers' Meeting and the Joint Meeting of G20 Labor Ministers with G20 Finance Ministers ▪ Wrap-up of Discussions and Conclusion of the Meeting